Trainee/part qualified tax adviser/qualified tax adviser

KTA is a boutique firm of private client tax advisers seeking a candidate for the position of trainee/part qualified tax adviser/qualified tax adviser. The firm is based in Mespil Road, Dublin 4 and specialises in providing the highest quality tax consultancy services to high net worth individuals. Our clients are primarily high net worth individuals who are involved in complicated commercial transactions with cutting edge tax structures. Our client base also includes high net worth foreign domiciled individuals who have taken up residence in Ireland.

Trainee

The position involves mainly tax compliance work at the outset. Tax trainees are assigned a block of clients and are expected to be responsible for completing client's tax returns and for ensuring that all compliance matters are kept up to date. Qualified advisers oversee this process. Over time the candidate will have exposure to advisory projects. We will provide you with full support as you undertake the Irish Taxation Institute's CTA exams. We also provide continuous training and development in house. We recognise the benefits of a good work/life balance and therefore we provide flexible working conditions for all employees.

This position would be ideal for someone who is interested in pursuing a career in private client taxation.

Part qualified tax adviser/qualified tax adviser

The ideal candidate would have some private client experience. The candidate will be required to work on a large portfolio of high net worth individuals. The role will involve both compliance and advisory work. You will work closely with the firm's directors to provide practical and innovative tax planning solutions to private clients.

Where applicable, we will provide you with full support as you complete the Irish Taxation Institute's CTA exams. We also provide continuous training and development. We recognise the benefits of a good work/life balance and therefore we provide flexible working conditions for all employees.
